OVERCOMING OBJECTIONS

Even after amazing presentations the customer may still say no. It is important to understand the real objection and work to resolve the issue. The LEAD selling approach is a proven and effective way to continue to build a relationship with your customers and solve the problem that the customer is experiencing.

Is
it always about money?

Of course not!

Why is our usual reaction to the customer reluctance to discount the repair?

What is the #1 reason customers decide not to use dealership service?

1. Trust (Perception of Overcharging)

2. Convenience

3. Value

DETERMINE SOLUTION

Once we have enough information from the questions we asked our customer, we can now determine a solution.

That just cost too much!

An example of how this would sound all together is...

- (L) I hear exactly what you are saying, you feel that those brakes just cost too much.
- (E) I can appreciate that; times are tough for all of us. It is important to get the best value for your dollar.
- (A) May I ask you a question? When it comes to brake repairs, what is important to you? I see, so using the manufactures parts is important. Has anyone ever told you the difference between the manufactures pads and the alternatives? Would you like me to explain this to you? Great, as you can see this is why our pads cost more than the aftermarket. In fact ours last longer and will keep your brake rotors and rims nearly dust free.
- (D) These manufacturer pads will save you time and money on car wash and future maintenance.
